1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

I) The species with a cut out portion for a sealing strip along a marginal edge of the label (claims 18-23).

II) The species with a connecting adhesive extending beyond the marginal edge of the outer layer and metallization layer (claims 24-36).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

See above.

The following claim(s) are generic: no claim is generic.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The only common feature of the claims is the sealing of a metallization layer at an edge of the label. This feature is old in the art as established by Zaborney.
4. The examiner notes that applicant has canceled the previous generic claim 1 that linked the two species and that there is now no unity of invention among the independent claims. Though after a first action on the merits, restriction is timely, as the independent claims are now first presented with a lack of unity. See MPEP 811.
5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to William P. Watkins III whose telephone number is 571-272-1503. The examiner works an increased flex time schedule, but can normally be reached Monday through Friday, 11:30 A.M. through 8:00 P.M. Eastern Time.
